RE: In Re Quigley Company, Inc.

Dear Counsel:

We are counsel for the Ad Hoc Committee of Tort Victims in the above-referenced bankruptcy matter. As you may be aware, the Confirmation Hearing in this case recently concluded. This letter is being sent to you at the Court's direction in order to inform you that the Settlement Agreement that your firm entered into with Pfizer, Inc. in connection with the Quigley bankruptcy (which we received from Pfizer during the course of discovery) has been accepted into evidence. For purposes of the public record, we are planning to redact client names and social security numbers prior to submitting final exhibits to the Court (the exhibits will not be filed on the docket, but will be submitted to the Court and may be cited in post-trial findings/rulings). If you have any objection to the inclusion of any other information contained your firm's settlement agreement (i.e., total number of claims settled, total dollars received in the settlement, disease types settled, per-disease settlement amounts), you need to notify the Court by filing a motion justifying the basis for your objection and the manner in which you propose the Court treat the information. Any such motion must be made on or before December 22, 2009.

We are also filing this letter on the Court's docket so that all parties who have entered an appearance in the case, or are otherwise monitoring the proceedings, are aware of the situation. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions with respect to the foregoing.

Very truly yours,

BROWN RUDNICK LLP
